TRIUMPH AND TRAGEDY OF 1865 RETOLD

Details of "A Week of Triumph and Tragedy," from Palm Sunday to Easter Sunday, 1865, as viewed by Adams Countyans was presented by Dr. Charles H. Glatfelter of the faculty of Gettysburg College to the Adams County Historical Society at its meeting Tuesday evening in the seminary "Old Dorm."

Lee's surrender of the Confederate Army of Northern Virginia came on Palm Sunday, April 9, 1865. Lincoln was shot on Good Friday, April 14, 1865, and died on Holy Saturday, April 15, 1865. The Civil War, Dr. Glatfelter noted, had "lasted longer and exacted a heavier toll than anyone expected and had put the name of Gettysburg, if not Adams County, on many tongues for many years to come."

"SOUND OF VICTORY"

"In the early spring of 1865 the war continued, the draft calls continued, the casualties continued. Five Gettysburg residents who had been taken prisoner by Confederates during the battle here returned home in March from North Carolina prisons, one to find his wife dead and his mother being buried on the day of his return. Another to die of pneumonia a few days after his return. "But the sound of victory was steadily increasing, Savannah, Charleston, Columbia fell. On April 4, 1865, the Sentinel reported that the 'rebels at Petersburg do not fight with any heart or zeal, but on the contrary when outside their earthworks are evidently more intent on being captured than using their arms.'"

CELEBRATION HERE

"Then came the week of triumph. The Star reported that when news came of the fall of Richmond and Petersburg flags were thrown to the breeze, the bells were rung, bonfires were kindled, 'young America came out in his strength with pistols, muskets and artillery.' A big celebration was held that Friday night, cannon, music, processions, a McPherson speech on the courthouse steps and a bonfire in the square all night.

"The Star reported that 'Monday morning a dispatch arrived announcing Lee's surrender. The dispatch was posted on the bulletin boards and with lighting speed the glad tidings spread over the town and through the country.' The Sentinel reported that the public school on High Street was dismissed after prayer of thanksgiving, the Star Spangled Banner, America, the Doxology and 'cheer upon cheer' for the general, the government and the flag. Monday afternoon the stores closed and 'general jollification' took place.

TRAGEDY FOLLOWED

"Succeeding the triumph came the tragedy, the assassination of Lincoln. The Star reported 'news reached Gettysburg Saturday (Continued on Page 10)

BLINKER LIGHT IS RETAINED

York Springs borough councilmen Tuesday evening voted to purchase insurance on the deep well pump at the creamery property. The pump is valued at $3,200. Installation of the water line from the creamery well will begin as soon as council obtains prices on pipe for the project. Atty. Ronald Hagarman requested additional details from council to prepare a lease of the creamery building to the fire company.

The possibility of removing the blinker light at the intersection of old Rt. 15 and Rt. 94 was discussed but action was tabled for further study. Some councilmen felt that the light is no longer needed to regulate traffic at the intersection, which was considered dangerous when through traffic moved through the borough. Roy Williams said he will be responsible for keeping the light in operating condition for the present.

A request to extend the borough water line to the property of Frank Smith was discussed but council agreed that blueprints of the proposed housing development should be submitted for study to determine if the present water supply would be affected by the extension.

Receipts in the general account were $47.77. Sinking fund receipts were $10.24 and water account receipts were $137.08. Bills were approved for payment in the amount of $178.94. Water account and general account expenses were $165.83.

The meeting was attended by five councilmen and Attorney Hagarman.

One hundred and twenty-five Gettysburg merchants, retailing and wholesaling practically every known variety of merchandise, have announced their intention of remaining open every Monday evening "for the convenience and service of Gettysburg and Adams County customers." Mares Sherman, chairman of the Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce retail committee, announced today. This is the first project undertaken by the committee and it has met with instantaneous response.

Affairs of the "Hardy Family," famous on stage and screen, entertained an appreciative audience of several hundred persons in the Plank memorial gymnasium Wednesday evening as the Gettysburg branch of the Woman's League of Gettysburg College presented its annual play. Good performances were turned in by Samuel Shirk as "Judge James Hardy" and Mrs. Ida Hartley Sperry as his wife. Much of the humor of the play was provided by young "Andy," a part well taken by Allen "Bud" Jennings. Romantic interest and good acting were furnished by Donald M. Swope, cast as "Wayne Trenton III" whose love affair with "Marian Hardy," Winifred Webster, had rough sailing. "Grandpa Hardy" in his comparatively few appearances was well portrayed by Prof. George Larkin and Fred Pfeiffer's performance as "Mr. Stubbins," campaign manager, was good. Others included in the well-chosen cast included Ellen Tipton Buehler as "Aunt Milly," Elizabeth McIlhenny as "Estelle Hardy Campbell" and Dorothy Meyer as "Myra Hardy Wilcox." Mrs. Lester O. Johnson was general chairman of the league committee and the play was directed by Dr. Richard A. Arms.

A deed placed on record today at the office of Recorder Winfield G. Horner, revealed the sale of the Ford garage property at the corner of York and Liberty streets by Ira D. and Blanche K. Plank, to David A. Oyler, all of Gettysburg. Mr. Plank has been in business at the location since 1924 and has been in the garage business locally for more than 20 years.

The Rev. Dr. Roy M. Dunkelberger, a Lutheran missionary in India, has arrived in San Francisco enroute to Gettysburg to start a furlough of a year and a half. The Rev. Dr. Dunkelberger, who has not visited the United States during the last six years, will join his wife and daughter, Dorothy, at the home of Dr. John Aberly, president of the Lutheran Theological Seminary here. Dr. Aberly is the Rev. Dr. Dunkelberger's father-in-law. The Rev. Harold Dunkelberger, who is a student at Columbia University, New York City, is a son of the returning missionary. Since his

WAYFINDERS

There are few people more inspiring than the ones who go right ahead, under all sets of circumstances, and make a way for themselves, incidentally setting a fine example for others. Our pioneers, inventors, and scientists have been wayfinders. When an animal is cornered it works fast to seek a way out, and that is exactly what each of us must do all through life. We must keep finding ways to get ahead, to better our standing and to get out of difficulties. Historic people have always been wayfinders — people with the will who went ahead and made the way.

I still keep marveling over the invention of the miniature transistor radio, whereby one can set a little box on one's desk and get the voices of news from thousands of miles away — and the television invention left me wondering more than ever at man's ability to find a way to such miracles.

Great thinkers have led the way to revelations and conclusions never before reached. They have been wayfinders to trains of thought that have enriched thousands of other minds. Just think of what Darwin did in his theory of evolution! Consider what the Wright brothers did in their persistent belief that man could eventually conquer the air through the airplane. They were inspired wayfinders.

We owe more to others than we realize, for so often being guided into ways that have meant so much to us, adding materially to our happiness. On the other hand, we gain great satisfaction, in return, by helping others to find a solid way ahead.

The hunter guides full confidence in his guide through strange territory and thick forests, for he knows that he will not be led astray. Undoubtedly that guide takes pride in his wayfinding.

Many times in life one is beset with a feeling of loss and isolation! It is then, if ever, that "a feller needs a friend," and we hope to find someone who will lead us back to ourselves. Often that one is the Heavenly Father of us all, in Whom we can well place our trust and to Whom we can always turn for guidance to the safe way ahead.

GARDENS DON'T HAPPEN

There cannot be a garden where the wedding isn't done. And the owner isn't willing, from the rise to set of sun, to pull away the thistles and to work with hoe and spade. For a garden doesn't happen. It is something to be made.

There cannot be a garden, however fertile be the land, where the soil is never patting by a firm, devoted hand. All in vain are shine and shower unless someone comes to aid. For a garden doesn't happen. It is something to be made.

There cannot be a garden without constant loving care. And the work of God and nature there is willingness to share. The beauty of the blossoms is the prize for toil returned. For a garden doesn't happen. It is something to be earned.

PLANS WIDENS
TO CUT THEFTS
OF ATHLETES

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) — Three new conferences and six new independents have joined the inter-conference letter of intent for college athletes and this makes the plan virtually national in scope, says its founder.

Dr. J. William Davis of Texas Tech. faculty representative to the Southwest Conference who evolved the plan to cut out wild recruiting and theft of athletes, said today only two major conferences — the Association of Western Universities (Pacific Coast) and the Ivy League — were not in the organization.

April 1 was the deadline for registering as the plan enters its third year and Dr. Davis received the Mid-American, Ohio Valley and Western Athletic Conferences and independents Memphis State; Newberry, S.C.; Notre Dame; Parsons, Iowa; Dayton, and Xavier of Cincinnati in the latest batch.

MAY 29 DEADLINE
Under the inter-conference letter of intent an athlete has until May 29 to sign with some school. After he signs he cannot go to another school in the organization without surrendering two years of eligibility, meaning he will have only two varsity years.

Dr. Davis said that there had been no major controversy over recruiting since the plan went into effect.

Already in the organization were the Atlantic Coast, Big Eight, Big 10, Missouri Valley, Southeastern, Southwest and Southern Conferences and independents Florida State, Georgia Tech, Marquette, Southern Illinois, Syracuse, Houston, Pittsburgh and Penn State.

CRIST SPARKS
MSM GOLF WIN
The Mt. St. Mary's College golf team registered a 134-4 1/2 victory over Loyola of Baltimore in their opening match Tuesday.

Dick Crist, of Gettysburg, a Junior and number one man on the team, took medalist honors with a front nine 38 and back nine 35 for a 73 over the 7,000-yard rain-soaked Turf Valley Country Club course enroute to a 6 and 5 victory over Loyola's number one man Dick Burt.

Denny Wynne, a Junior and playing out of the number two position, was the only other player to break 80 as he shot a fine 79.

Dr. John Dillon's Mountaineers go after their second straight victory when they meet Western Maryland on Hanover's South Hills Course at 1:00 this afternoon.

Summaries:
Dick Crist, MSM (73), defeated Burt (80), 6 and 5 (3-0); Denny Wynne, MSM (79), defeated Gardner (85), 6 and 5 (2 1/2-1 1/2); Lewis, Loyola (82), defeated McKee (88), 4 and 3 (0-3); Jim Orth, MSM (84), defeated Keeler (90), 5 and 4 (3-0); Marty Conroy, MSM (85), defeated Wickinson (90), 2 and 1 (3-0); Paul Jaber, MSM (84), defeated Lombardo (88) 2 up (2-1).

DECIDED IN 3RD
"It's about time we scored on that guy," said Hershey Coach Frank Mathers. "We have tried everything."

In addition to Taylor, Baltimore lost winger Dave Richardson, who was hit in the eye with a puck during practice Monday. And with veteran Aldo Guidolin out with two dislocated fingers, the Clippers have been using only four defensemen.

With Plante turning aside 23 shots, Baltimore carried a 1-0 lead into the third period Tuesday. Dick Meissner scored for the Clippers with 44 seconds left in the opening period when he tipped in a loose puck.

Goals by Roger DeJordy and Myron Stankiewicz gave Hershey a 2-1 edge in the last period, but Meissner tied it 2-2 at the 12:48 mark. Ubricco untied it at 18:01.

TO SEEK PACT WITH EAGLES
PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Jerry Wolman, owner of the Philadelphia Eagles, has agreed to meet with city officials to try to work out an agreement to play professional football in the city's proposed sports stadium.

The meeting, set for next Wednesday, was arranged Tuesday by city Managing Director Fred Corleto, who reached Wolman by phone in Miami, Fla. Wolman is attending a meeting of the National Football League there.

Wolman withdrew talks over leasing the proposed stadium because of a disagreement over whether the Eagles would get exclusive rights. The Eagles had once been offered exclusive rights to during the fall.

Last week, however, Mayor James H. J. Tate said the door should be left open should another professional football team want to play there.

Fencing coach Charlie Schmitter of Michigan State has had teams compete in all 21 NCAA fencing championships.

BELIEVE HOUSE
READY TO MOVE
KEY MEASURES

By JACK LYNCH
Associated Press Writer
HARRISBURG (AP) — Republican legislative and administration leaders expressed cautious optimism today that House Democrats may be ready to move on some of their key proposals.

Senate majority leader Stanley G. Stroup, R-Bedford, and A. James Reichley, legislative secretary to Gov. Scranton, professed to see progress after a meeting Tuesday between the governor and House Democratic leaders.

"The situation appears to be improving," said Stroup.

Reichley added that he believed break has occurred in the impasse between the two parties in the House.

HOUSE ON VACATION
They gave the assessment as the Senate returned alone for a brief session before quitting for the Easter recess until April 20. The House began its vacation after Tuesday's session.

Within a few hours of the governor's meeting with House majority leader Joshua Eilberg, D-Philadelphia, the House moved on a few administration proposals and got Senate action on a Democratic bill in return.

A House committee gave preliminary approval to a Senate-passed measure authorizing the commonwealth to participate in the federal Appalachia and anti-poverty programs.

OTHER ACTION
The Senate reciprocated by giving committee approval to the House's version of the administration's plan to expand county eligibility for Pennsylvania Industrial Development Authority loans.

A companion bill given House committee approval would appropriate $1 million additional this year for PIDA loans.

In addition the House approved, 203-0, a bill that would permit state, county and local governments to acquire by purchase or condemnation abandoned strip mine lands to make them eligible for Appalachia funds.

The House passed and sent to the Senate a bill that would set Nov. 22 aside as a memorial to President John F. Kennedy who was assassinated on that date in 1963. Thirteen Republicans voted against the proposal. One of them said afterward they didn't want to establish a precedent.

L-TOWN DOWNS
SPRING GROVE

Littlestown High School scored in every inning in downing Spring Grove 12-7 in its opening baseball game Tuesday afternoon at Littlestown. The game was played in a light drizzle and was called after five and one-half innings by mutual agreement.

An error, four safeties, including a double by Bernie Noble, gave the Bolts four runs in the first inning. Three more runs resulted in the second inning on two walks, a double by Bruce Crouse and singles by Neal Leister and Terry Pottorff.

This afternoon Littlestown was scheduled to meet Kennard-Dale at Littlestown.

Bermudian scored a run in the first inning on a walk by Todd Tanager, his steal of second base, and two successive overthrows.

The winning run in the fourth came when Bill Smyers singled after walks to Lloyd Garman and Sam Baker.

Bermudian (2-1) will play a return game at Northern Friday.

Wilt Overpowers Russell
And 76ers Even Series 1-1

By RALPH BERNSTEIN
Associated Press Sports Writer
PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Red Auerbach was smoking Tuesday night but it wasn't his usual victory cigar.

The smoke was coming out of the ears of the Boston Celtics' coach after his team lost, 109-103 to the Philadelphia 76ers and sent the two teams back to Boston tied 1-1 in the best-of-7 series of the National Basketball Association's Eastern Division final playoffs.

The Western Division final playoffs resume tonight with Los Angeles at Baltimore. The Lakers won the first two games of the series on the West Coast.

"This is a snakepit," Auerbach said of Convention Hall, the 76ers' home court. "It's a bush town. I've never liked it. They give you 10 orange juices for 11 guys."

30 POINTS, 39 REBOUNDS
"Okay, Red," said one observer. "So it's a snakepit, and bush, and you got only 10 orange juices, but how about that guy, Wilt Chamberlain."

Chamberlain, the 7-foot-1 star of the 76ers, was slightly injured on himself. He scored 30 points, took down 39 rebounds, blocked eight shots and handed out eight assists. He simply overpowered the Celtics' Bill Russell, the NBA's Most Valuable Player.

Russell managed 12 points, 16 rebounds, had five assists. Sam Jones, with 40 points, topped the defending NBA champions.

The third game in the series will be played at Boston Thursday night.

RICHIE ALLEN
GETTING BACK ON THE BEAM
CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP) — Bad news for National League pitchers: extra practice has super-charged Richie Allen's battery and he's back on the beam again.

This was evident Tuesday night as Allen smashed a king-size home run and a double to point the Philadelphia Phillies to a 6-1 victory over the Kansas City Athletics.

The Phillies' good-looking third baseman was the last player to sign this year, and as a result got to spring training late. It showed in his hitting, where just last week he was totaling a meek .130 average.

Allen says he owes Tuesday night's showing to some extra practice.

PRACTICE HELPED
"I hadn't hit against enough left-handers down here," he said, "so the other day I got a few licks against Bo (Belinsky). Before the game (Johnny) Hermstein threw to me and it helped."

The players are still talking about Allen's poke over the center field wall, the second time he's hit one over the 400-foot barrier this spring.

I'd like to see Richie hit that one in the daytime," Gus Triandos said, "it might have gone out of town."

VICTORY FOR HERBERT
"Did he put a charge into that one," Johnny Callison added.

"Richie gave that ball a long, long ride," said Wes Covington, "that was man-sized stuff."

Starter Ray Herbert scattered six hits during the six innings he pitched and allowed just one run. He was credited with the victory. Dallas Green finished up for the Phillies.

EXPERTS SAY
MASTERS TO BE WON ON GREEN

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer
AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Most of the top contenders here for the Masters Golf Tournament starting Thursday feel the championship will be won on the greens.

Jack Nicklaus, the long-hitting bomber and the 4-1 choice in this elite, international field of 93, doesn't agree entirely. "You still got to get there," said the 25-year-old husky from Columbus, Ohio, today.

Nicklaus, a nonwinner this year, served notice Tuesday that he appears fit and ready to break into the winner's circle.

He unleashed a five-under-par 67 for the par 36-36-72, 6,980-yard Augusta National Golf Club layout on a hot and sunny afternoon.

"GOOD ROUND"
The 5-foot-11, 200-pounder closed out a round that included eight birdies and three bogeys by holing out a 40-foot chip shot from the fringe back of the green.

"It was a good round," said Nicklaus "but my short game was sloppy."

It was Nicklaus' first tour of the course since he left to spend the weekend with his family in Columbus. He had whipped the course five times last week with rounds of 68, 69, 68, 68 and 70.

NAMES CONTENDERS
"I left because I didn't want to stay here too long and get stale," said the smiling and jovial 1963 Masters king. "I preferred to work on my game last week before the crowds came and so I wouldn't be bothered. I practiced before and after each round."

Asked to name five chief contenders, Nicklaus pondered and then named defending champion Arnold Palmer, South African Gary Player, Australia's Bruce Devlin, Tony Lema and Billy Casper.

Palmer, who expressed concern over his driving and putting, picked Nicklaus, Doug Sanders, Devlin, Casper and Lema to give him the most trouble.

SAYS A'S MUST BE GOOD TEAM
BRADENTON, Fla. (AP) — Hank Peters, new general manager of the Kansas City Athletics, believes the A's must become a good club because "so much time and money has been spent on this team."

The 40-year-old Peters, a career baseball man, had been farm director and assistant general manager. He moved up to the top spot Tuesday, succeeding Pat Friday.

Peters admits the A's have problems this season.

Asked why Kansas City has had so much trouble building a contender, Peters commented that Arnold Johnson acquired a defunct organization in 1955, with only three scouts and about 50 farm system players.

Under Johnson, he added, "Our budget wasn't just limited, it was extremely strict." Owner Charles O. Finley has spent much more money, he said, particularly in the past two years.

Last year the A's signed 81 bonus players for $662,000.

Friday will return to the insurance business he left in 1961, on a temporary basis.

Nudists Blame Peeping Tom For Shot At 'Copter That May Close Their Tenn. Camp

EDITOR'S NOTE — A battle over nudism in Tennessee. A plague of seagulls in Seattle. Fort Worth's courthouse troubles. And a plan for refurbishing New York's Central Park are among facets on the U.S. scene this week.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Tennessee's nudists disclaim firing the shot which made them outlaws and could bring another remarkable court case.

State Rep. Gaines Morton pushed through a bill outlawing nudist camps. He said someone shot at him as he was flying over the state's only known nudist camp.

"I can assure you it was none of our group," said Jim — no last names, please — to a reporter. "We've been thinking of offering a reward for the arrest and conviction of a nonnudist Peeping Tom who shot at the helicopter."

"Tennessee Outdoor Club Inc." was chartered last year, and claims about 125 family memberships. It was planning a quiet expansion this year. However, it appears now that it and the American Sunbathing Association may have to fight a test case first.

GULLS AFTER GARBAGE

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — In some cities it's starlings. In others, pigeons; but in Seattle, it's seagulls.

The seagulls in this seaport city are possibly the most arrogant, fat and noisy in the business. Some say it's because of a staple item in their diet — garbage.

Garbage, right now, is one of Seattle's major civic problems. Thus, so are seagulls.

The City Council has been negotiating for a year on garbage disposal contracts. There have been so many plans and so much official changing of mind it's hard for the average citizen to keep up.

Clouds of seagulls fatten on the decay — and garbage — at metropolitan — area dumps.

COURTHOUSE TROUBLES

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — "I don't think it's right to try a man for murder under these conditions. You can't hear yourself think," said one judge.

"It's just the heart throb of a dying structure," said another. They referred to the noise of workmen's drills and hammers, just one of the problems that have plagued Fort Worth's 12-story, $3.5-million new Criminal Courts Building since its design in 1960.

Among other things: bricks broke loose from the concrete siding, aluminum strips fell from the upper portion of the structure, the roof developed leaks, tile crumbled off the walls of restrooms.

At open house in May, 1963, elevators did not function properly and a group of ceremonial visitors became trapped between floors.

A Lovelier You

Women expect miracles of a hairdressing salon. But, according to a nationwide guild of professional beauticians, few women are able to convey their expectations to an operator. And this lack of communication puts the hairdresser in the position of a mind reader. The message may or may not get through.

For a successful styling or coloring, you must know what you want and then translate your idea, as exactly as possible, to your hairdresser. It helps to take along pictures of styles and colors that reflect your wishes. Such pictures are readily found in your publications.

The next step is a discussion of your ideas:

- Is your chosen style geared to your natural assets, proportioned to your face and figure, and detailed to soften negative features? If not, how can it be adapted to suit you? Most styles are adaptable.

- Will you be able to arrange the style between salon visits? To manage a complicated "do," you must have good hair and a skillful hand. Otherwise, simplicity keys manageability.

- With regard to a color change, how will it react on your skin coloring? Can your hair take it? Hair should be in good condition before a radical color switch is attempted. Generally speaking, becoming shades are soft and natural. To test a shade before making it permanent, try a matching rinse.

Above all, respect your hairdresser's opinions. They spring from a wealth of experience. Work together and you will work a miracle!

SAY BOYCOTTS HURT INNOCENT

WASHINGTON (AP) — The proposed boycott against Alabama products urged by some civil rights leaders is a mistake, according to Sens. Joseph S.

Clark, D-Pa., and Hugh D. Scott, R-Pa.

In a joint radio and television program released Sunday, Clark said "It just seems to me that there are better ways of getting at the underlying problem. I am afraid that it (a boycott) will penalize the innocent as well as the guilty."

Scott said the boycott would hurt those it is designed to help. He said it shows a "misguided attitude."

In another area, the senators differed on U.S. conduct in the war in South Viet Nam. Clark said "We've gone about to the outer limit" in military action against the Communist guerrillas. He said he wants "wiggle room" left for negotiations to avoid a major war. Scott said that this is not this time to negotiate. He said differences between the Soviet Union and Communist China should be exploited.

Cliff Alexander, brother-in-law of Manager Walter Alston of the Dodgers, scouts for the Los Angeles Dodgers.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., has urged President Johnson to appoint a five-member commission to enforce the legal ban on discrimination in employment.

The commission is provided for in the civil rights act of 1964, which also imposes the discrimination ban.

Berserk Negro Wounds 5 Whites And Kills Father

SUMMIT, Miss. (AP) — "I am God! The Negro is God! Nobody can do anything to me!" shouted Isaac Brown Jr., 22, a Negro college student, as he wounded five white persons — one of them fatally — and then shot his father to death.

The second victim of the shooting spree, Ed Smith, 45, died Monday night in a hospital in nearby McComb. His death was not disclosed by authorities until early Tuesday.

Brown was in custody in an undisclosed jail where officers rushed him following his capture a short time after he apparently went berserk in a hardware store.

SERIOUS CONDITION

J.F. Schluter, 80, owner of the hardware store and Smith's uncle, was reported in grave condition.

The others, Smith's brother, Herbert, 51; Miss Julia Moak, 43, the hardware store's bookkeeper, and Walter Roberts, 80, who was sitting on a bench outside the store, were recovering satisfactorily.

Officers related the events this way:

Brown entered the hardware store and asked to see a .22 caliber pistol. After Smith showed him the weapon, Brown loaded it and began firing wildly around the store.

Walter Roberts, 80, who was outside, heard the shots and began to slip away from the store. Brown stepped outside and shot him in the back, then re-entered the store and continued firing.

He left the store and met his father.

The elder Brown was shot in the chest.

The youth then bolted for a house, which officers quickly surrounded. After being slightly wounded, Brown was captured and handcuffed.

RUSSIAN JET BUZZES WEST BERLIN FIELD

By JOHN O. KOEHLER

BERLIN (AP) — The East German Communists closed the Berlin autobahn for 4½ hours Tuesday and a Soviet jet buzzed West Berlin's big Tempelhof Airport for the first time.

The United States, Britain and France strongly protested the shutdown on the autobahn and a U.S. Air Force spokesman said the buzzing also would be protested.

The spokesman said a Soviet twin-engine plane came in from the east at 500 feet and swept across the field, which is heavily used by commercial airliners flying in and out of West Berlin.

SAW RED STAR

"The visibility was good and there were observers who clearly saw the red star on the plane," the spokesman declared.

The U.S. Army reported that five Allied vehicles held up by the autobahn shutdown were allowed to proceed at 2 p.m. One

Advertising Man Posed For Sculptor

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) —

A Knoxville advertising agency executive says he is the man who posed for a bust of the late President John F. Kennedy which is planned as a gift to the Kennedy Memorial Library at Boston, Mass.

Sam Newman, who resembles the slain president in looks and gestures, said sculptor Jacques Lipchitz had been commissioned by the Spaeth Foundation of New York City to do the work for the library.

The executive said Monday a secretary of Kennedy, aid Arthur Schlesinger, recalled seeing him at a Washington social function, and that led to his being chosen as the model.

U.S. military sedan was stopped at Babelsberg on the West Berlin end. At Helmstedt on the other end of the autobahn four Allied vehicles were detained.

Anything this homely has got to be good.

The VW Station Wagon may look silly. But it's so sensible, it makes all the others look even sillier.

We started by chipping away at every senseless old idea we could find.

Hoods didn't seem to be doing anything useful, for example, so we don't have one.

The engine is tucked in back instead.

We saved an inch here and an inch there and got a machine that holds nearly twice what regular wagons hold: over 60 cu. ft.

The VW holds 9 people, not 6. When you take out the middle seat, it holds 6 anyway. Plus a piano.

You like windows? There are 21.

Doors? 2 huge and 3 very huge.

The VW runs for next to nothing, and you don't have to go into hock for life to buy one.

You just can't find anything frivolous or flimsy or merely for the sake of looks.

Because the rule works both ways.

Anything this good has got to be homely.

MEMORY OF DR. SEAGRAVE STAYS BRIGHT

By PETER BOOG

NAMHKAM, Burma (AP) — Dr. Gordon S. Seagrave the man is gone, but his memory lives on.

Stories about the surgeon are recounted by his devoted nurses who called him "Daddy," by his colleagues who helped in the administration of his hospital, and by some of the patients who were saved from almost certain death by his medical skill.

Sterling Seagrave, his son, recalled one of his father's favorite stories — about how he performed a delicate cataract operation with a razor because no scalpels were available.

Maraw Prilum, 22, his favorite Kachin nurse, recalled the time when one of a class could provide an answer to one of the doctor's questions.

THOROUGH TEACHER

"He was so mad he stormed away from the lecture hall and would not return until we all went and apologized," she said.

"He was a thorough teacher and made sure that each nurse understood the lectures. He would speak in Burmese, Shan or Kachin so that each national would fully grasp what he was trying to get across."

Head matron "Granny" Sao Mi Khan, who trekked with him on the long retreat from Burma before the Japanese advance in World War II and on the triumphant journey back, remembered the early days of the hospital. Seagrave tried to teach anatomy without the equivalent medical terms in Burmese. It made for some earthy language, she said.

VIOLENT ARGUMENTS

His American colleague, Dr. Joseph Newhall, said that Friday was "argument day" — the whole staff had to turn out for baseball.

"We used to get into violent arguments because he had changed the game from American baseball to Namhkam baseball with his own set of rules."

Administrative assistant U Tun Shein, who runs the hospital now, recalled the time a woman's club in Massachusetts donated a wheel chair for Seagrave. He was furious when he saw it.

"I'll never use that damn thing," he said. Yet he did use it in the last three months of his life.

USED OWN BLOOD

Pansy Po remembered the time one of his nurses was dying and urgently needed a blood transfusion. No blood was available. Seagrave quickly took his own blood to save her life.

The Rev. Don Crider, an American Baptist missionary from Pennsylvania who runs a

NEW CAR SALES IN MARCH SET EARLY RECORD

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — Americans have jumped the gun on the arrival of real spring weather and thereby set a record as well as possibly laying low an old tradition — when to buy a new car.

They used to wait until spring to rush to buy. But this March, when the weather most places was anything but spring-like, dealers sold more American-made autos than in any other month in history.

The home-based industry also made more cars than in any previous month. Canadian subsidiaries of U.S. auto giants started shipping Canadian-made cars here.

EUROPEAN MODELS

And European producers say the market here for their models is expanding fast — maybe not up yet to the record of sales set in 1959 for foreign cars, but better than in 1964 and 1963 when the market was recovering from the 1960 dip.

The economy in general is getting a big boost from all this eagerness of Americans to buy new cars.

The stimulant goes far beyond words: "He was brassy and bossy. He was kind and tolerant of his enemies but cruel and demanding of his friends. Perhaps he expected too much from them. He was a great doctor and a good man. We all loved him very much." Seagrave died March 28.

the carmakers themselves, to their workers, dealers, repairmen, to the many suppliers of car production lines, and to the suppliers of those who make parts.

ALL FEEL SPURT

The stimulant is felt by the tiremakers, the gasoline sellers, the writers of auto insurance, the roadside restaurants and motels. In time this year's buying spree will enrich those who will have to make still more highways to accommodate the fast-growing horde of cars crowding today's roads.

How much all this adds up to for the economy in general can only be estimated. But makers of just one model, Ford's sporty Mustang, say that in its first year of production its sales of more than 400,000 have had this impact on the economy:

Retail values has topped a billion dollars. Sales have meant $860 million in wholesale financing volume and $580 million in retail financing volume, with insurance premiums on the new cars amounting to more than $54 million.

The maker has spent $224 million with some 700 outside supplier companies for components, and provided jobs for about 18,000 Ford employees. How many others are employed by dealers and supplier companies because of the new car can only be guessed.

Production started March 10, 1964, in Dearborn, Mich., and has since spread to San Jose, Calif., and Metuchen, N.J.

All this is only a small part of what the entire car industry is doing for the economy. Sales of all makes in the first three months of 1965 were a record 2,189,787, up 19 per cent from a year ago. Production in March alone was a record 962,549 cars, compared with 723,225 in March 1964.

"MY FAIR LADY" WINS 8 OSCARS IN COMPETITION

By JAMES BACON
AP Movie-Television Writer
SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — "My Fair Lady," like the Cockney flower girl whose story it tells, made good — winning eight Oscars at the 37th annual Motion Picture Academy Awards.

The show won the best-picture honor and was filmed entirely in Hollywood. But in other respects Academy voters were generous to foreigners: the four top acting awards at Monday night's ceremonies went to Europeans — three of them Britishers.

Among them was Rex Harrison, the rapid-fire, acid-tongued Professor Henry Higgins, who coached his flower girl Eliza Doolittle into such a fair lady she was mistaken for a princess.

TOP ACTRESS

Top actress award went to Julie Andrews — the Eliza Doolittle of the stage but not the screen — for her role as the high-flying nanny in "Mary Poppins."

Two long shots, Britain's Peter Ustinov and France's Lila Kedrova, won the supporting performer Oscars.

For Harrison, the honor was the highest in a distinguished film career dating back to 1929. For Miss Andrews, a bright and beautiful newcomer, it was sweet solace for not being chosen to do the screen version of "My Fair Lady."

She had costarred with Harrison on Broadway in the hit Lerner-Loewe musical, based on George Bernard Shaw's "Pygmalion."

HEPBURN PRESENTS AWARD
But Warner Bros. chose Audrey Hepburn for the film role, in which she did not win a nomination.

Miss Hepburn, who flew here from Europe especially for the award ceremonies, presented the Oscar to Harrison. When she stepped onto the stage of the Santa Monica Civic Auditorium she received an ovation.

Harrison kissed her and they embraced. "This is a very exciting evening for me," said the 56-year-old Englishman. "I feel, in a way, I should split it in half."

Miss Andrews ran happily down the aisle to accept her award from 1963's best actor, Sidney Poitier.

THANKED AMERICANS

"I know you Americans are famous for your hospitality, but this is ridiculous," she said.

The 29-year-old veteran of English vaudeville shows and music halls thanked "Mary Poppins" producer Walt Disney, as well as Americans everywhere, "for making me so welcome in this country."

Ustinov became one of the two-time Academy winners for his portrayal as the head of a burglary ring in "Topkapi," a comedy dealing with a bizarre jewel theft. The portly, mustachioed Ustinov, 43, London-born of Russian parents, did not come from London to accept the award — the second he has won for supporting actor. He received an Oscar for his performance in "Spartacus" in 1960.

The Russian-born Miss Kedrova, now living in France, was making her first movie in English when she appeared in "Zorba the Greek" as the much-used woman of pleasure. She stopped on the way to the stage and kissed Anthony Quinn, star of "Zorba."

Bob Hope guided the evening as master of ceremonies. Noting the preponderance of nominations and awards for the English, Hope said:

"There'll always be an England — even if it's in Hollywood."

Sukarno, Bunker Ease Differences

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Indonesian President Sukarno and U.S. presidential envoy Ellsworth Bunker have reported progress in easing differences between their countries, but Malaysia and Viet Nam remain sticking points.

Sukarno has vowed to crush Malaysia and objects to U.S. support for the Southeast Asian federation. He has demanded also that the United States get out of Viet Nam.

P. O. INSPECTOR GETS WARNING

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A postal inspector who headed a recent mail fraud investigation that brought four men to trial, is free today after being convicted for contempt of court for criticizing the jury's verdict in the case.

U.S. District Court Judge Thomas J. Clary Tuesday allowed the postal inspector, George R. Givens, 48, to go free, but warned him — "The next agent that does this, it will mean jail."

The jury that tried the case found two of the defendants guilty, and the other two innocent. Givens was accused of conversing with the jury foreman, Lewis Andress, of Levittown, and criticizing the verdict.

Givens, who has been a postal inspector since 1942, told the judge he questioned the verdict not to criticize it, but only in order to improve his court presentations.

DEMAND FOR HIPPO MEAT IS GROWING

By DENNIS LEE ROYLE
KAPATORO, Uganda (AP) —

Nearly every week barefoot Africans from this tiny town trot into the game parks of western Uganda, seek out the white game warden and hand him a note which reads "Please supply four hippos on Friday."

It sounds like a weighty order but white traders living at the foothills of Uganda's snow-capped equatorial peaks, known as the Mountains of the Moon, are increasing their orders every month, as more Africans develop a taste for hippo meat and the possibility of an export market increases.

Hippos plunge around in muddy confusion in Uganda's teeming game parks. Thinning them out has been in progress for four years.

TOO MANY OF THEM

The great hulking animals, which weigh anything up to two tons each, have been breeding so profusely that there are not enough muddy pools to accommodate them. Hippos need plenty of water and mud to protect them from Africa's tropical heat.

Each hippo is estimated to eat 400 pounds of fodder daily, mainly bushes, grass and small trees, leaving little food for other animals.

While the African has found something new to supplement his traditional cassava and corn flour diet, white businessmen visualize the animals as a canned delicacy which might delight gourmets of the world.

They estimate that a processed hippo will provide them with 2,000 cans of succulent meat.

CALLED DELICACY

Game warden Nicholas Rousseau says American importers have shown interest in hippo meat as a delicacy and a few sample cans have been exported.

Rousseau, who has shot many a hippo and enjoyed many a two-pound steak, finds hippo meat comparable to prime beefsteak. He has experimented on friends by giving them hippo meat in place of beef steak. They were completely fooled.

As many as 180 hippos have been shot monthly in an effort to thin down the herds. But Uganda's game parks are still overstocked with at least 10,000 who jostle around the muddy pools trying to find sufficient room to immerse themselves.

PAY $56

Traders pay $56 for each animal. The meat is then sold to African butchers who retail it to Africans at around 15 cents a pound. Much of the meat must be dried or smoked before the long trek to the isolated African villages hugging the slopes of the Mountains of the Moon.

Africans living closer to the game parks treat hippo meat much in the same way as Westerners enjoy a Sunday dinner—roasted, fried or boiled.

TO HOLD HEARING
HARRISBURG (AP) — The House Motor Vehicles and Highway safety committee has scheduled a public hearing for April 27 in Harrisburg on the hauling of explosives over state highways.

Rep. Louis Sherman, D-Philadelphia, chairman of the committee, said about a dozen or so witnesses have been invited to testify.

Youth, 17, Dies Of Wound In Abdomen

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Donald Colledge, 17, had just left a West Philadelphia store with his 13-year-old cousin when he accidentally dropped a dime.

Suddenly, three other youths tried to grab it. One of them warned Colledge, "I've got a gun."

Colledge said, "You don't fool me. It's not loaded."

But the .22 caliber pistol went off, wounding Colledge in the abdomen. That was two months ago.

Tuesday, Colledge died of his wound at Mercy Douglass Hospital. Police immediately began questioning the other three youths—two 15, the other 14, who had originally been charged with assault with intent to kill in the shooting.

HARRISBURG (AP) — Legislation calling for a crackdown on juvenile offenders of the state liquor law is before the house with bipartisan support.

The bill, introduced Tuesday with three Democrats and four Republicans as sponsors, would remove minors between 16 and 21 years of age from the protection of juvenile laws if convicted of purchasing, consuming, possessing or transporting beer or liquor.

Other bills introduced in the house would:

—Guarantee a secret vote in court — marital proceedings for state police and require that defendants be given a transcript of the testimony.

—Give second-class townships the power to license and regulate operation of drive-in theaters.

NORWEGIAN HOUSEWIVES SHOP ABROAD

By ERIK A. WOLD
OSLO, Norway (AP) —

Norwegian housewives plagued by increasing prices take a trip abroad to save household money.

Thousands of them make the 24-hour round-trip voyage to neighboring Denmark to stock up on the vastly cheaper Danish foodstuffs.

The solution is available only to those Norwegians within easy reach of the southern ports, however.

Most of the 3½ million population must struggle for economic survival in a price-wage inflationary spiral.

PRICE INDEX SOARS

The price index, on which wage adjustments are decided, has soared from 100 in 1959 to 120.8 today. There has just been another round of wage increases with some salaried workers getting hikes of 10 per cent.

Automatic and semiautomatic increases in wage rates according to general wage agreements will just help boost the inflation spiral in months to come, economists claim.

Officially the index figures for incomes and prices increase at about the same speed. In practice, however, the price index is galloping ahead.

The Socialist government is facing growing demands from the opposition parties for action to stop inflation.

ELECTIONS COMING

Elections are scheduled next fall and the Conservatives, Liberals, Agrarians and Christian Democrats will try to topple the government of Einar Gerhardsen.

The people aboard fishing boats, behind machines and tools, counters and typewriters, are worrying.

The foodstuff index — 100 in 1959 — rose to 121 last December. The meat index rose to 126 and the fish index soared to 136. Fish is one of the most important factors in every Norwegian's diet.

Norway's income tax is graduated progressively, so wage

House Votes Fund For Appalachia

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has voted to spend $344,328,000 to finance the start of the Appalachian Regional Development program.

The grant, approved Tuesday, was part of an omnibus $2,188,333,083 appropriation bill sent to the Senate by the roll-call vote of 348 to 62. Most of the new funds will be used during the remaining months of the fiscal year, which ends June 30. The Appalachian program was approved by Congress earlier this year.

Increases shrink as the earnings rise. This makes many higher-paid employees prefer fringe benefits such as unlimited use of a company car or company-financed low-rental housing.

New Brochures Will Lure Visitors To Annual Apple Blossom Sunday On May 2

The apple blossom committee of the Adams County Fruitgrowers Association has distributed 20,000 new brochures to travel and tourist agencies from Cleveland to the east coast to attract visitors to the annual Apple Blossom Sunday, May 2.

Ralph Sandoe, cochairman with Donald E. Horst, said that the brochure was revised this year to include more photographs of the annual event and copies are being circulated by the Gettysburg Travel Council, the AAA and other travel groups in the east. Sandoe said several thousand pieces were forwarded to the Cleveland Travel Show for distribution in the Ohio Valley areas.

EXPECT THOUSANDS

Early inquiries indicate that this year's Blossom Sunday could attract the greatest crowd in the history of the affair. Requests have been received from at least one travel trailer group from the Lancaster-York-Harrisburg area for parking facilities for as many as 30 small trailers at blossom headquarters, South Mountain Fairgrounds. The group spent last weekend at Somerset at the maple festival festivities.

Pre-Blossom Sunday events have included a meeting of the smorgasbord committee of which Mrs. Grace Garretson is chairman, to complete plans for obtaining a wide assortment of apple desserts. The Poultrymen's Association of Adams County is making final preparations for serving a barbecue chicken dinner from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the fairgrounds.

HOSTESS AT TEA

Mrs. Richard Trostel, chairman of the queen's committee, and committee members, entertained the new queen and contestants at a tea Sunday. The tea is an annual event and honors the contestants and their families. The new queen, Miss Cathy Miller, will be crowned Apple Blossom Sunday at 2 p.m. Efforts are being made to have Governor Scranton or one of his cabinet members perform the crowning. The Biglerville High School Band will present a mid-afternoon concert and commercial displays will be erected on the fairgrounds for the benefit of the public and will include orchard, packing and processing information.

More than 200 fruitgrowers and their families are involved in the annual Apple Blossom Sunday which features tours of the orchards, hospitality booths, an all-day program at headquarters, highlighted by the queen's crowning, and open house at many individual orchard homes.

The affair has attracted as many as 75,000 visitors to the fruit belt on Blossom Sunday.

Prime Minister Confined By Flu

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Harold Wilson stayed in bed today with the flu he caught in Paris.

Wilson became ill Monday after returning from talks with President Charles de Gaulle. Despite a fever, he insisted on making a brief appearance Tuesday in the House of Commons.

The U.S. Bureau of Internal Revenue has 4,000 employees.

morning about 8 a.m. by telephone. Many refused to believe the first dispatch but then came the second and third ones. The church bells began to toll, flags were draped in mourning. Stores all closed at once. 'It was, indeed a day of sadness for our town.' That afternoon a public meeting was held at the courthouse with Edward McPherson speaking. The Star reported: 'It was with feelings of ecstatic joy that we announced to our readers last week the surrender of Lee's Army and the virtual ending of the rebellion. We gloried in the bright prospect before us and our readers and the whole nation joined in the general rejoicing. But what a change has passed upon us since then. Our gladness has been turned into sorrow and this day a nation mourns the death of its chief magistrate. Yes! Lincoln is dead!'

The Star in its April 27 edition reported 'Many from town went to Hanover Junction to watch the funeral train on its way to Harrisburg, to view that saddest sight ever viewed by the American people—their martyred president going to his lonely home.'

QUOTES EDITORIALS

Dr. Glatfelter read the editorial appearing in the three local weekly papers on the death of Lincoln and after noting the effect that Lincoln's death had on the course of American History concluded with a quotation from Winston Churchill concerning 'an April 20 years ago: 'We can now see the deadly hiatus which existed between the fading of President Roosevelt's strength and the growth of President Truman's grip of the vast world problem. In this melancholy void one President could not act and the other could not know. This climax of apparently measureless success was to me a most unhappy time. I moved amid cheering crowds . . . with aching heart and a mind oppressed with forebodings. . . Soviet Russia had become a mortal danger to the free world.'

REPORTS VANDALISM

President George Olinger presided at the meeting. Corresponding Secretary Arthur Weaver reported on vandalism at the Low Dutch Cemetery. A gate broken at the cemetery 'fortunately was not damaged,' but the hinges were broken and new ones will have to be placed.

A chest of clothes donated by Mrs. John Gallagher was turned over to the society by Mrs. Hope Morgan. Howard Marling donated a copy on 'Brother Jonathan' printed in New York in 1848. The newspaper had a two-page illustration of fighting in Mexico in 1847.

President Olinger displayed the badge of 'Letter Carrier No. 1,' of the Gettysburg post office, donated to the society by Dr. Deitch. The badge was given to Norton Miller, the first local carrier for the post office, and in succession came to Deitch. When the post office gave new badges to the carriers recently Deitch presented the historic badge to the society.

Olinger expressed his appreciation and the appreciation of the society 'to our good landlord, the Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary. Not only do they rent this building to us and provide us with light and heat for $1 a year, but they have also now landscaped our area, putting in various lovely shrubs.'

MANY DONATIONS

Olinger congratulated member Mrs. Tyson presented at the meeting 'on your 90th birthday tomorrow.'

Olinger presented a kitchen knife made by 'E. Hartzell Cutlery Co., Gettysburg,' to the society. He learned from other members that the cutlery company had been located in the building on N. Washington St. where Olinger now has his Codori Roofers Supply Co.

A poem written to Jennie Kerr was donated by Pearl Harbaugh. A picture of General Warren's statue was donated by Alice Johnson. Mrs. Ethyl Singmaster presented a collection of all the fraternal and honorary pins of the late Elsie Singmaster Lewars to the society. Fred Hummelbaugh, vice-president of the society, agreed to frame the pins. A letter was read from Attorney Donald P. McPherson asking if any member knew the whereabouts of a collection of 10,000 pamphlets of Edward McPherson. The Library of Congress, he said, raised the question when, in going through manuscripts of Edward McPherson at the Library of Congress to organize and index them, reference was found to the collection.

ther League will conduct visitors on a guided tour of the church. Gettysburg Lutheran Seminary Choir, under the direction of Robert Clippinger, will present a concert of sacred music Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

LAST SERVICE

The last regular service in the old church will be held Palm Sunday. The last Communion will be administered on Holy Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

St. Paul's Lutheran Church was organized March 27, 1881, by the Rev. W. L. Heister and the cornerstone was laid August 28, 1881. The church was remodeled in 1912 at a cost of $7,000 and in 1940 the Sunday School building was dedicated.

Ground was broken last Easter Sunday for the new church which will seat 325 persons. There will be a new kitchen with modern facilities, Sunday School rooms for the Nursery, Kindergarten, Primary, Junior, Senior and Adult Classes. The new structure provides a church parlor for the first time.

REBUILD ORGAN

The cornerstone for the new building was laid last September and the sermon was delivered by Rev. Francis Reinberger, professor of practical theology at the Lutheran Theological Seminary, Gettysburg. Among some of the items placed in the cornerstone were newspaper accounts, Luther's Small Catechism, statistics of Biglerville community and church service book and hymnal. The organ in the present church was rebuilt and enlarged by M. P. Moller Company, Hagerstown, Md., at a cost of approximately $20,000.

A Bit Of History About Early Settlers

By B. F. M. MacPHERSON

THE LAST NOTES ON THE KIMMELS

For some reason which cannot be accurately determined at this late date the James and Kimmel families buried their dead along the east and south walls, or sides, of the burial plot located on the original James plantation, in Langanore District, Frederick County, Maryland. Sydney Ann James, the wife of General Anthony Zaarr Kimmel, and five of her six children are interred at the south end. Directly in front of their graves are those of the James family, and John James. "The Original Proprietor," was buried here in 1750—some 215 years ago. Colonel Anthony Zaarr Kimmel, his wife, Mary (Morgan) Kimmel; three of their children and two of their grandchildren are on the east side. It is quite possible that other members of both families rest here in unmarked graves.

The James - Kimmel burial plot is roughly, some 60 feet square and is enclosed by a carefully constructed dry stone wall with white quartz quoins, stones, used by the builders to "lock" the corners. These massive stones overlap at right angles. Because of their color they stand out vividly against the dark background. This wall is still in an excellent state of preservation and, according to tradition, it was built at least 175 years ago. At one time there was a gateway on the south side but this was closed in the early part of the twentieth century.

Graves of the James-Kimmel families take up only about half of the available space in the plot. In that remaining some 12 fieldstones, without inscriptions, are still in place. Undoubtedly they mark the very early graves — people who died at a time when it was practically impossible to obtain a stylized tombstone. The first white person to die in what is not Frederick County was supposedly buried here. This grave was probably marked by a stone — native to the locality — as were many others. There is no way of determining the "who, why or when" of these graves. Very likely old members of the James - Kimmel family knew the history of the plot — but unfortunately they have long since "joined their ancestors." This being the case there is little likelihood of the mystery being solved.

The last marked grave here, that has not been mentioned previously, is that of a son of Colonel Anthony Zaarr and Mary (Morgan) Kimmel. The inscription on this little stone, which has fallen from its base, reads as follows:—

24. "In memory of — William Morgan Kimmel — son of Anthony Z. and Mary M. — Kimmel — Died December 5, 1861 — Aged 6 days."

According to Williams' "History of Frederick County" (Volume 2) "Before his death, in 1866, Colonel Anthony Zaarr Kimmel sold his plantation to Lewis F. Dietrick, of Baltimore, Maryland, with the condition that he and his wife occupy the house so long as they lived and reserving, for all time, the family burial ground. Both were interred in the old graveyard. This historic plot is enclosed by a dry stone wall, four feet in height and two feet across the top. In the plot is a weeping willow tree, which had been brought by Colonel Kimmel's father, General Kimmel from the grave of Napoleon I at St. Helena; also four Cedars-of-Lebanon, which were brought from the Holy Land."

Note:—These trees, badly in need of care, are still in the cemetery. One of the Cedar-of-Lebanon trees almost completely hides the grave of General Kimmel's young wife, Sydney Anne (James) Kimmel.

After the death of Colonel Anthony Z. Kimmel his children bought back "Langanore Farm," on which their ancestors had lived for over 200 years from Mr. Dietrick, and it remained in the possession of the family until comparatively recently.

Older residents of the district still talk of the parties they attended at the Kimmel home and stress the fact that the "Kimmels were the aristocrats of the neighborhood." Family portraits, probably by Peale, are described and details given about the fine old furniture in the house. Colonel Kimmel, it is asserted, lit his cigars with five-dollar bills. True or not — this last vividly illustrates just how easily legends spring up and traditions are established.

Thus the James-Kimmel family, their history, genealogy, and last, but by no means least, their family burial ground. Nor can it be forgotten that the Kimmels were originally rooted in Pennsylvania — they first pioneered in William Penn's province — before one branch moving on to Maryland.

Just west of the Langanore Farm, on the Kimmel Road, off the Annapolis Road, is the plantation of the pioneer, Henry Poole. The James-Kimmel-Poole families were related by marriage — Margaret James, the daughter of Daniel and Lucy James, and granddaughter of "The First Proprietor," married Henry Poole and went to live on the property that bordered her father's on the west.

Today the old mansion house on the Poole Farm is in a state of ruin and neglect — that would probably cause the Pooles to "turn over in their graves" could they but know. Windows are broken, woodwork defaced, and no trace remains of the fine lawn and the many flowers remembered by the older residents. Tin cans, bottles and other trash have taken their place.

The Poole house faces to the west. On a hill about 500 yards southwest of it is the family burial ground. This is an area some 50 feet square, enclosed by a "mortared" stone wall — well built and still in a fairly good state of repair. Inside the burial ground, however, the story is somewhat different. Here, originally, the dead were interred in rows and 25 years ago "more or less," there were some 25 or 30 grave markers in this plot. Many of them are probably still there — fallen, broken, and well-covered by the wild honeysuckle, briars, bushes and young trees with which the area is overgrown. Only one stone has been found to date. The inscription follows:—

25. "In memory of — Henry Poole — who was born — November 26, 1764 — and departed this life — March 8, 1822 — Aged 58 years."

Note:—The pioneer ancestor of the Poole family in the Langanore District and the husband of Margaret (James) Poole, who is probably buried beside her husband near the center of the graveyard.

The notes on the Poole family, of Frederick County, Mary-

Park Superintendent Kittridge A. Wing is shown purchasing from Park Teller Nora Saum the first Recreation-Conservation sticker sold at Gettysburg National Military Park. Five million Americans through out the country are expected to buy the $7 annual permit as a bargain for vacations and outdoor holidays.

The sticker entitles the holder and all other occupants of a private automobile to enter for purposes of recreation all national park areas, national forest areas, national wildlife refuges and other federal recreation areas where an automobile entrance fee is required. ## RETAIL CLERKS VOTE TONIGHT

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Retail food clerks working for A&P, Food Fair and Acme super markets vote tonight on a proposed, new contract.

The proposed contract, announced Tuesday night by commissioner Charles Deussing of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, would cover 41,800 clerks in southern New Jersey, southeastern Pennsylvania and Delaware.

The clerks had authorized a strike but continued working. Their old 33-month pact expired last March 16.

Details of the agreement were not announced. The clerks, represented by Retail Food Clerks District No. 11, had been seeking pay raises of $5 a week for each of two years, and five, eight-hour work shifts a week.

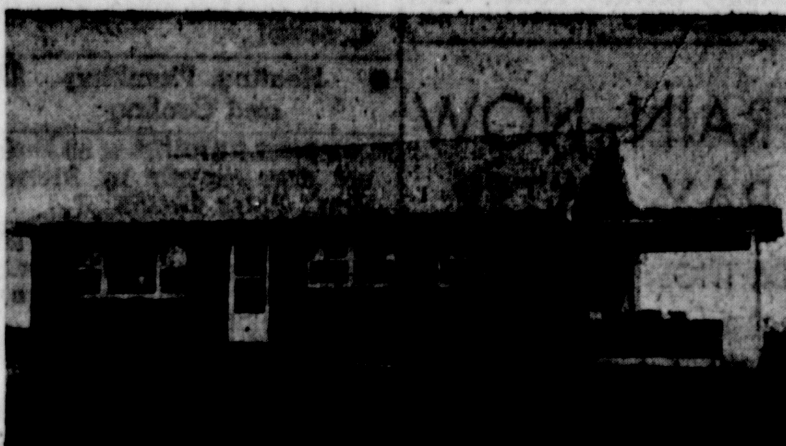

The employers, represented by the Philadelphia Food Store Employers Local Council, had reportedly offered pay raises of $2 to $4 a week in a three-year contract and retention of the present 40-hour a week schedule, keyed to peak hours.

Present scales were $2.32 1/2 for part-time help, $85 a week for full-time workers and $124 for assistant managers.

Scott said he had invited Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., to participate.

Johnson Will Explain War Policy On TV This Evening

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson will deliver a major statement of U.S. policy on the Vietnamese war tonight in an apparent move to encourage peace efforts by a group of 17 nonaligned countries.

The speech, scheduled for delivery at Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, is believed to have been decided upon by the President at this time also to serve these other purposes:

1. Emphasize what officials call the "peace track" of U.S. policy at a time when American and South Vietnamese bombings of North Viet Nam are slowly closing in on the Hanoi area. Air strikes against North Viet Nam began exactly two months ago today on Feb. 7 and about 20 have now been made. Johnson reportedly wants to remind the world that the aim of his strategy in this respect is not a wider war but security for South Viet Nam.

2. Respond to fears and criticisms about U.S. policy which have been expressed by public figures in this country and government leaders abroad. One of the chief points of criticism is that the conflict in Southeast Asia could get out of hand and explode into a big war.

3. Indicate to whatever extent

he considers wise at this time some of the U.S. guidelines for an approach to negotiations and the issues that would have to be resolved in reaching a successful agreement.

The President's address will be carried to the nation by television and radio at 9 p.m. EST.

This will be Johnson's second major Vietnamese policy statement, laying stress on peace hopes, within two weeks. On March 25 the White House released a statement which it said the President had presented to a Cabinet meeting in which he declared the United States would not be second to any country in seeking an honorable peace. He also opened up the possibility of U.S. economic assistance to a peaceful Southeast Asia in which Communist North Viet Nam might share.

A new element was injected into the crisis last Thursday when the heads of government of 17 countries, including India, Yugoslavia and the United Arab Republic, petitioned the United States and the Communist powers as well as all other directly interested countries with an appeal to start negotiations "as soon as possible without posing any preconditions."

France owes the U.S. $6.34 billion in World War I debts.

Opens Trust Fund For Nepal Youth

NEW YORK (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., who has nine children, has established a trust fund for children of Sherpa climbing guides in Nepal.

Kennedy set up the trust fund, believed to be more than $7,500, with the fee he received from Life magazine for an article on his ascent last month to the top of the 13,900-foot Mt. Kennedy, named after his late brother, President John F. Kennedy.

Keating To Return To Law Practice

NEW YORK (AP) — Former Republican Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, defeated last November by Robert F. Kennedy, announced Tuesday his return to law practice. He also said he did not expect to run for any office — including mayor of New York City.

"I will maintain my interest in politics," Keating said.

WIESBADEN, Germany (AP) — Maj. Gen. John K. Hester, 48, commander of the U.S. 17th Air Force, remained in a deep coma today in a hospital, five days after a parachute jump accident.

He suffered brain damage when his parachute failed to open properly during a training jump last Friday.

JAMES CAREY QUILTS TODAY AS UNION HEAD

WASHINGTON (AP) — His re-election ruled illegal by the Labor Department, James B. Carey resigns today as president of the International Union of Electrical Workers, Paul J. Jennings is expected to succeed him.

For Carey, president of the union since its founding in 1949, it appears to be the beginning of the end as an important force on the labor scene.

For Jennings, a founder of the union and a member of its executive board, it is a day of vindication and triumph. He has been trying to depose Carey for years. The Labor Department now has said after a recount of ballots, he — not Carey — should have been installed as president Jan. 1.

Carey, 53, said Tuesday in submitting his resignation to the AFL-CIO union's executive board:

"I have come to the painful conclusion that I can best serve our beloved union's future, its unity and solidarity and its capacity for advancing the interests of all electrical workers by resigning my position as president of the IUE."

The board is expected to accept the resignation and name Jennings to his place as $25,500-a-year head of the 400,000-member union.

Some union sources speculated the board could name someone other than Jennings, but other sources said this is unlikely.

Anyhow, the Brooklyn-born Jennings, 47, is taking no chances. He said he will not drop his federal court suit claiming the union presidency.

STUDENT AID BILLS ARE UP

HARRISBURG (AP) — The House version of legislation to extend student loans to college freshmen as well as upperclassmen is before the Senate today while the Senate version is before the House.

The house passed its bill Tuesday, 205-0, practically duplicating the administration bill which passed the Senate Feb. 17 and currently lies in the House Higher Education Committee.

The House bill would extend loans to freshmen, increase the maximum on student loans from $5,000 to $7,500 per student, and appropriate $1,225,000 to the state's higher education assistance fund to finance the increase.

The Senate bill does the same, except its proposed appropriation is only about $900,000.

At the same time, two bills were introduced in the house — one to appropriate $26.5 million to the Department of Public Instruction for scholarships in fiscal 1965-66, and the other $25,000 to cover expenses of the higher education assistance agency for the remainder of the current fiscal year.

In three years under Gene Mauch the Philadelphia National League baseball team went from 47 victories in one season to 92 last year.

Thousands Homeless As Floods Sweep 2 States

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Flood waters churned through streets, homes and fields in Iowa and Minnesota today, leaving thousands homeless. Meanwhile, towns in Indiana, Nebraska and Ohio were recovering from a lash of tornadoes or strong winds.

A 12-year-old boy standing near a tree was struck and killed by lightning during a hailstorm at Middletown in southwestern Ohio.

Rivers rose in many areas, causing the U.S. Weather Bureau to predict one of the worst flood seasons in many years.

4,000 LEAVE HOME

Floods have driven more than 4,000 persons from their homes in Minnesota. More than 2,000 persons have been evacuated in Iowa.

A portion of the Flandreau Dam on the Cottonwood River near New Ulm, in southern Minnesota burst Thursday night, permitting a heavier flow of water downstream toward Mankato.

The Red Cross estimated that about 2,000 more persons would be evacuated within the next two days in the Mankato area, which is expected to get six inches more of water because of the broken dam.

30 FOOT CREST

The Minnesota River was expected to crest at 30 feet Saturday at Mankato, breaking the record 29.9-foot crest in 1881. The river was at 27.6 feet Thursday night.

Residents of Chaska were constructing a 31-foot dike after the Weather Bureau forecast a 32-foot crest next week. Utility companies disconnected heating units.

Gov. Karl Rolvaag inspected the flooded area in a helicopter. At least 20 Minnesota highways have been closed.

NEW THREATS

About 400 families were evacuated in Waterloo, Iowa, Thursday night when the Cedar River flowed into the town.

Overflow waters receded in the northwestern section, but new flood threats appeared in the state's central and eastern counties.

A call went out for volunteers in Des Moines to help fill sandbags for protection along the Des Moines River.

Portions of Illinois, Indiana, Missouri and Wisconsin also were in the beginning stages of flooding.

AUTOBAHN NOT CLOSED TODAY BY COMMIES

By JOHN O. KOEHLER

BERLIN (AP) — The Communists left the Berlin autobahn open throughout the morning today for the first time since they started closing it on Monday.

A U.S. military convoy of four vehicles and nine men was cleared for West Berlin without trouble. Civilian traffic moved in both directions.

The Communists offered no explanation for the change in procedure. For the past four days they have closed down the autobahn every morning at 9 a.m. for three or four hours.

EXPECT CLOSING

There was still a possibility, however, that the Communists would close the autobahn later in the day. A Soviet officer told newsmen Thursday night in Helmsstedt that the daily shut-downs would continue until Soviet-East German military maneuvers end on Sunday.

There was a marked slowdown on traffic entering the West German end of the 110-mile superhighway. Trucks were backed up for 7 miles at the Helmsstedt checkpoint and were waiting 27 to 28 hours before going through the Communist controls.

POSES CHALLENGE

About 100 cars were lined up at Helmsstedt. The waiting period for them was three to four hours.

The intermittent blockade of Berlin traffic that began Monday posed a challenge to the United States, Britain and France to take counter measures which could create a new East-West crisis but so far the Western Allies confined themselves to protests.

"The longer the harassment goes on, the more serious the situation created by the harassment will be," a State Department spokesman said in Washington.
